

FLORISSANT FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT

Fire Ban Lifted

The Teller County Sheriff has lifted the Stage I Fire Ban, effective October 22, 2026. Open burning restrictions are no longer in effect in Teller County, including the Florissant Fire Protection District.

PLANNING TO BURN? CONTACT THE TELLER COUNTY SHERIFF

- Burn permits are issued by the Teller County Sheriff's Office. A permit is required for burn piles larger than 3 feet across or 2 feet high.
- Download the application at tellercountysheriff.com, or pick one up at the Sheriff's Office, 11400 W. Hwy 24, Divide. Return it with the $10 fee.
- Permit holders must call the Sheriff's Office at (719) 687-9652, option 6 before lighting and again when the fire is out.
- For complete burn rules, including what you can burn, pile size, and burn hours, see the Sheriff's Open Burning Permit Regulations.

Conditions can change quickly.

Burning is never allowed during a Red Flag Warning or when fire restrictions are in effect. If restrictions return, we'll post an update on our website. Questions? Call the district office at 719-748-3909.
